'As Time Goes By'

Beta Club singers of Appomattox County High School (above) presented a medley of songs, "As Time Goes By" during the annual Future Homemakers of America banquet Thursday evening, April 13 in the ACHS cafeteria. The singers are state, first-place winners among competing Beta Clubs. This is the 4th first-place win by Beta Club chapter members from ACHS. (From left): Jimmy Chandler, Faye Paulette, Brenda Ferguson, Gary Wooldridge, Carol Wood, Joan Coleman, H. T. Nash, Kay Paulette and Joe Vaughan. Mrs. Pauline DePew is the chapter sponsor.

STONEWALL HD CLUB

The Stonewall HD Club held its regular monthly meeting Thurs., April 13th, at the home of Eleanor Stratton with 10 members present and Mrs. Johnson.

The meeting was called to order by our president, Inez Foster.

Hallie Roope had our devotions on "What is a Christian?" and Helen Thomas closed with prayer.

One of our main interest at this meeting was our District III Meeting at Farmville. The theme for this meeting will be "Now Is Our Time".

There will be a Food Leader's meeting at the Southside Electric Coop. April 25th at 10:30 a.m. on "New Ways to Use Convenient Foods."

We discussed different ways for making money for the club.

Helen Routen made the motion and Helen Thomas seconded that we vote on our club colors. The colors selected were Red and White. Red for the color of our state bird and white for the dogwood, state flower.

Jane Young gave our Federation Program on "Use of Seat Belts" and "Free-Way Driving". We had a pretty good discussion on these.

Our meeting was dismissed with our Homemaker's Creed and Prayer afterwhich Mrs. Johnson passed the lingerie around she had made. This was very pretty. Then she gave our demonstration on "Yo-Yo and Your Weight.' This was very good. Sometimes we have to be reminded of things we already know - push your plate back.

Our next meeting will be a luncheon meeting with Gloria Gunter and Nellie Kranz at 11:30 a.m., May 11th.

Since there was no other business we were dismissed and served delicious refreshments.

Hallie Roope, Club Secretary

2 Million Rt. 460 Project Approved

Also, Pamplin and Appomattox

The State Highway Commission has granted tentative approval to allocations totaling $15,078,000 for projects on Lynchburg district roads. The commission met Thurs., April 13 at Natural Bridge. Lynchburg district includes Appomattox county.

The Lynchburg district figure is part of the $268.5 million approved state-wide for the 12-months beginning July 1, an increase of 16 per cent over the current fiscal year allocations.

In approving the project-by-project allocations tentatively, the commission deferred final action until after public hearings in June. The hearing for the Lynchburg highway district is set for 9 a.m. Wed., June 7 at Hotel Roanoke, Roanoke, Va.

Some of the larger tentative allocations for the district are to continue the dual-laning of Route 460. A supplemental allocation of $2 million is approved for Route 460 in Appomattox and Prince Edward counties, to continue dual-laning east of Appomattox, including the southwest quandrant of the Farmville bypass.

Another tentative allocation is for $200,000 on Route 47 in Appomattox county for underpass and approaches, N & W Railway in Pamplin City.

Also approved was a $40,000 supplemental allocation for town for curb and gutter and widening between west intersection Route 460 and Rt. 691 in the town of Appomattox.

Carol Wood 'Girl Of Year'

"Girl of the Year" is Carol Wood, a junior at Appomattox County High School. She's FHA Chapter president and state FHA treasurer. (At left), Carol's mother, Mrs. A. L. Wood, Jr., who gave the mother's response at Thursday evening's annual FHA banquet. (At right). Mrs. Betty Jo. Smith, ACHS instructor and speaker for the evening. She used this year's FHA theme for her address: "The Key To Opportunity."

Annual FHA Banquet

Carol Wood, Chapter president and state Future Homemakers of America treasurer, was named "Girl of the Year" Thursday evening as the Appomattox Chapter F.H.A. held its annual Mother-Daughter banquet in the cafeteria, Appomattox County High School.

Carol is a junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wood, Jr. She has received many awards and honors during her time of membership in the F.H.A. She was featured speaker at the Junior Future Homemakers of America banquet, held recently at Appomattox Intermediate School.

Speaker for Friday evening's banquet was Mrs. Betty Jo (Richardson) Smith, a graduate of Appomattox High School and now an instructor in the Pre-Vocational Training program. Her subject was "Preparedness: The Key to Opportunity."

Karen Marshall, chapter secretary, gave the blessing for the meal. Martha Harvey, vice-president, introduced guests. Dianne Smith made the "Girl of the Year" presentation. Wendy Sperry, treasurer, announced that Carol Wood, Sue Giles and Martha Harvey have applied for the state FHA degree.

The Welfare Committee was named as "Committee of the Year" with an honorable mention awarded to the Degrees Committee. Patti Clements, reporter, announced awards.

Cathy Gowin, historian, introduced the state-prize winning Beta Club singers who presented a medley of numbers. "As Time Goes By." Ellen Doss, vice president, introduced the evening's speaker. Sponsor of the Appomattox Chapter is Mrs. Madeline Thomas. Campbell-Appomattox Federation FHA president is Debbie Rowe, also a member of the Appomattox FHA Chapter.

Appomattox County FFA Team Wins

FBLA

The Appomattox County FFA Chapter won the Hub Federation Degree Team contest at Amherst on April 14, 1972. The team will now participate in the Southside area contest to be held April 22 at Rustburg.

The Appomattox team competed against five other teams. William Campbell chapter placed second.

Members of the Appomattox County FFA Degree Team were president, Phillip Lucado; vice-president, David Wheeler; secretary, James Torrence; treasurer, Doug Webb; reporter Emmitt Knight; sentinel, Brent Washburn; conductors, Edward Davidson and Donald Drinkard; green hands, Mike Buckner and Chris Gallier; advisor, Mr. W. C. Prowse.

A degree team is judged on how well the members conduct the opening and closing ceremonies of the FFA, performs the raising of candidates to the first degree of Green Hand and solve a parliamentary problem.

On Thursday, April 13, the Appomattox Future Business Leaders of America, held its monthly meeting.

President, Diane Smith, called the meeting to order. Secretary Cathy Gowin, read the minutes of the last meeting.

Treasurer Kelvyn Coleman gave the monthly financial report.

The chapter then recognized members who will be attending the FBLA convention in Roanoke this week end.

Committees were set up for planning our FBLA week, and for selecting a slate of officers for the coming year.

Vice-President Dianne Williams introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Warren Taylor, from the Virginia Division of Forestry.

Mr. Taylor showed a film and talked on "Virginia's Natural Resources." He expressed the appreciation of the Forestry Division to the chapter for conducting a Smokey Bear Campaign.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Boys Plantation Plans Building Fund Drive

The Patrick Henry Boys Plantation Executive Board, has just announced plans for a Building Fund Drive for the purpose of constructing a new cottage for boys and other related improvements. The new cottage will provide space for 12 additional boys and their houseparents. In addition, the cottage will provide rooms for recreation, study, laundry, central supply, snacks and relief workers. Their goal has been set for construction to begin in the spring of 1973. The Plantation officials indicated that the completion of this cottage would only take care of a small percentage of the applications now being turned away because of a lack of space and meeting this timetable is an urgent concern of the Plantation Board.

To assist in the Building Fund Drive, a Buffet Dinner has been scheduled for May 5th at the "Homestead" located West of Lynchburg on Old Route 460. Mr. W. R. Bondurant, Trustee of the Plantation, is in charge of the Building Fund Buffet and has prepared a menu that you will not want to miss. Tickets have gone on sale from the Patrick Henry Boys Plantation office in Brookneal and can be obtained from the Woman's Club s in the Alice Kyle District, Mr. W. R. Bondurant and the Jefferson National Bank in Lynchburg, Va. The Buffet tickets are $5.00 each and the proceeds will all go into the Building Fund for the new cottage. Approximately 400 people attended last year's Buffet and a larger number is expected this year as a very special program is being planned.
